NEWS LETTER

July 2024

Welcome

It looks like the summer has finally arrived and we do hope that the sun will continue to shine on us as we love taking our reading during the library sessions outside into the courtyard.

Competitions

Diary of a Wimpy Kid

The Library Champions Tilly, Amari and Isla created a very popular competition themed around 'The Diary of a Wimpy Kid'.

We had four books up for grabs and our lucky winners were George, Toby, Charlie and Craig.

Adventure on Trains

Re-design your own book cover for the 'Highland Falcon Thief' by M. G. Leonard was a competition created by Katie and Olivia.

Congratulations to H. for his winning entry. We hope you enjoy your prize 'Murder on the Safari Star'!

Football, Football, Football!

Remember, our free SORA app has hundreds of audiobooks available for the children to download!

A FourFourTwo Collection - Magazine

Read the latest editions of the popular football magazine online! This magazine features articles and interviews covering everything from grass-roots football right up to the international scene, past and present. All written in a humorous, but wholehearted, polished but readable, style.

Goal! By DK

This is a visual guide to the world's most popular game, packing all the excitement of the pitch into a book. This guide is a feast of all football related facts, covering everything from the rules of the game to the top tournaments.

Billy the Kid by Michael Morpurgo

Billy was a champion soccer star, playing for Chelsea in the 1930s. But that was before the war broke out. The story is told through the voice of an 80 year old man, who looks back on his life as Chelsea's champion striker until the outbreak of war in 1939 and on through his subsequent life.

The Story of Football by Rob Lloyd Jones

This is a lively and engaging history of the football game. It tells the story of football, from its beginnings in the Roman Army to the modern day Premiership, including how both American Football and Rugby were born.

Finding her Feet by Eve Ainsworth

A shy but talented footballer navigates challenging friendships and anxiety at school in this touching tale. Lily always feels a little bit left out. Shy and anxious, she finds school really hard, particularly as most of the other girls all seem so confident. Most of the time, Lily wishes that she could just disappear. But during a game of football in PE, Lily's teacher spots her natural talent and invites Lily to join the local girls' team, where she starts to make friends with some of the other players.

Welcome to Wellstead Library

We had such a lovely afternoon in June welcoming the children who will be joining us in September to the library.

This transition event was very well attended and the children enjoyed story time with Mrs Porter and Mrs Patrick, and getting introduced to our lovely library.

Library Champions

As we are approaching the closure of our library for our annual stock check, I'm pleased to advise that our Library Champions are still powering with full steam ahead!

Save the Earth

Luca, Evie and Shruthika worked together to create an eye-opening display featuring our amazing planet and how we can help to save it.

The Universe

Eloise, Sahara and Madison created a wonderful display centered around the universe. The display includes books on our solar system and aliens and has been completed with a black hole that pulls in our books!

Annual Library Stock Check

Please note that all library books and Family Day loans are due to be returned to the library by Monday, 8th July.

If you think that your child has misplaced their book, please contact us on library@wellsteadapps.co.uk.
