News from the Reading Ambassadors

Issue 1 – December 2016

Welcome to the first issue of 'Reading Rockets'; a newsletter created by the Reading Ambassadors with news about their projects and your library.

Meet the Reading Ambassadors

You can easily identify us by our badges.

Why not ask us for some advice or help for your next big read if you meet us in the corridor?

Reading Ambassadors Do...

Reading Ambassadors are here to help you keep reading. We are all around the school. If you want book recommendations just come and find us! We know all the latest books for you to read. You'll know who we are by looking for red or blue shield shaped badges. We make sure everyone is reading and enjoying themselves. (Mia / Farro)

We make displays and do book reviews for particular books. We also encourage people to read certain books. We decide which books haven't been read and decide if we should keep them or take them from the library. (Charlotte / Poppy)

Author Display

Have a look at our awesome display about Julia Donaldson for the KS1 children.

Author Focus for KS2

Read a book by Anthony Horowitz in December. He is one of the most successful writers in the U.K.

Book Reviews

'The Magic Faraway Tree' by Enid Blyton

I would recommend this book because it's a book about friendship and magic. With Beth, Frannie and Joe, there's always a magical world at the top of the Faraway Tree. It's a great book for all ages and extremely fun to read. (Lydia / Farro)

'Kitten Tales' by Holly Webb

I would recommend this book because it's fun and enjoyable for children who read chapter books. But it is normally for children who have been reading chapter books for longer. It's also quite cute because it's all about kittens. (Emma / Poppy)

Twitter Updates

We meet once a week and will update you on our projects and activities via Twitter @WellsteadPri Because #readingrocks
